

IMAGE USE AND ACCESS

Images of the FLLAC's permanent collection in the public domain can be downloaded for personal and educational use only. No commercial use or alteration is allowed. All information necessary for the proper citation of works in the collection is available in the object records in the Online Collections catalogue. We encourage users to identify works from our collection according to accepted standards and to provide an image credit to the Frances Lehman Loeb Art Center, Vassar College, so that others may find and use our resources.

To request publication quality images of any work in the collection, please contact Art Resource

Images of copyrighted works are displayed here under fair use, in accordance with the Art Museum Directors Guidelines for the Use of Copyrighted Materials and works of Art by Art Museums and/or Code of Best Practices in Fair Use for the Visual Arts. If you wish to use copyrighted images for any purpose, you must seek permission from the copyright holder.

Reproduction of any image for which Artists Rights Society (ARS) controls the copyright is prohibited without written authorization from ARS, 536 Broadway, 5th Floor (at Spring St.), New York, NY 10012. <http://www.arsny.com/>

All Vassar College campus community requests, please email loebimagerequests@vassar.edu

Press images, please email tathibodeau@vassar.edu

FLLAC's photography policy permits photography for personal use only, and is restricted to works of art in the FLLAC's permanent collection (objects on loan to the Art Center may not be photographed). Hand-held cameras only may be used; tripods are not permitted.
